

The Church in Transition:

Equipping Congregational Leaders for
Missional Discernment and Vibrant
Congregational Life in a Shifting Culture

This seven week interactive and educational program is designed for congregational leaders, church council/session members, pastors, church staff, or church members who seek to dig deeper into the metrics of congregational growth and vitality. The program will equip participants with the ability to critically and theologically reflect about the nature of church growth and vitality, and then examine the ministry and mission of growing PC(USA) churches in the American Northwest.

Thursdays in mid-Aug. through Sept., 2017
Covenant Presbyterian Church, Boise, ID
