

Faith and Death:
Planning for the End of Life

*Join a team of Chaplains from the Boise Presbytery
for information and conversation on making healthcare choices.*

Part One: Sunday June 3, 2018 0930-1030

An introductory, informational session on how our faith and values can guide us when planning for the end of life.
Followed by worship at 11 a.m.

Part Two: Saturday June 9, 2018 9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Three sessions centered on the
“Who, What, Where, Why, and When”
of planning for end of life.

Includes continental breakfast and light lunch.

All are welcome. Free of charge.

All events hosted by Boone Memorial Presbyterian Church (USA)
and held at 406 14th Avenue Caldwell, Idaho
RSVP (208) 454-3435

Faith and Death:
Planning for the End of Life

*Join a team of Chaplains from the Boise Presbytery
for information and conversation on
making healthcare choices.*

Part One: Sunday June 3, 2018 0930-1030

An introductory, informational session on how our faith and values can guide us when planning for the end of life.
Followed by worship at 11 a.m.

Part Two: Saturday June 9, 2018 9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Three sessions centered on the
“Who, What, Where, Why, and When”
of planning for end of life.

Includes continental breakfast and light lunch.

All are welcome. Free of charge.

All events hosted by Boone Memorial Presbyterian Church (USA)
and held at 406 14th Avenue Caldwell, Idaho
RSVP (208) 454-3435